The Grand Forks Summer Musical Company presents two entertainment events for you this season. The first is Traditions in Theatre, the second is The All City Musical.

Traditions in Theatre is a short vocal recital followed by a musical review from some of the most important musicals in American musical history. The cast is composed of the upcoming stars from all over

Grand Forks, including elementary, junior high and high school performers. This production presents a fresh performance for your musical enjoyment.

The All City Musical is a full length musical production. The show includes musical numbers from Gilbert and Sullivan to the works of Sondheim. This is an fun filled trip through the very best of American musicals. This show follows in the footsteps of last year's production from the works of Andrew Lloyd Webber. This large cast production offers outstanding family entertainment.
